DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

This action is in response to the Applicants' amendment filed on September 28, 2004. Claims 1, 2, 5, 6, 8-10, and 13-16 are pending and will be considered for examination.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 1, 2, 5, 6, 8-10, and 13-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fisher et al. (US 6,243,691 B1).

Referring to claims 1, 5, 9, and 13, Fisher teaches a method and system for generating proxy bids in an electronic auction comprising:

- specifying a minimum increment for bidding on an item (Figure 2; column 5, lines 63-65);
- receiving a bid for said item from a first bidder which is a current high bid for said item (Figure 2);
- identifying a previously recorded proxy bid from a bidder (column 8, line 56 – column 9, line 6);
- generating by said electronic auction an bid which becomes a new high bid for said item utilizing said proxy bid, wherein said another bidder holds the new high bid for said item, further wherein said bid equals said bid received from said first bidder by said minimum increment, and wherein said bid equals said proxy bid (column 8, line 56 – column 9, line 6; column 12, lines 33-61).

Fisher does not teach that the proxy bid from a second bidder is greater than the current high bid. However, Fisher teaches that a plurality of bidders are allowed to establish the limit amount of their proxy bids when the bids are initially placed (column 8, lines 56-60). Therefore it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made, to allow a bidder to set the limit of the proxy bid to whatever amount the bidder desired (e.g. greater than the current high bid). One of ordinary skill in the art would have been motivated to do so in order to allow the bidder to place a bid that he or she felt was competitive. Fisher does not explicitly teach that the proxy bid from a second bidder is not greater than said current high bid plus said minimum increment. However, Fisher teaches that the proxy bid is equal to the current high bid plus minimum increment (column 8, line 64 – column 9, line 3). The Examiner notes that this reads on the Applicants' claim language because the claim does not preclude the proxy bid from being equal to the current high bid plus the minimum increment. The claim language states only that the proxy bid from a second bidder is "not greater than" said current high bid plus said minimum increment. A proxy bid which is equal to the to the current high bid plus the minimum increment meets this limitation because it is "not greater than" the current high bid plus said minimum increment. Fisher does not teach that the bid is an off-increment bid or that the bid "does not exceed" the first bid plus minimum increment or proxy bid. However, as already noted above, Fisher teachings read on these limitations because the claim language does not preclude the new bid from being equal to the first bid plus increment or proxy bid. A bid which is equal to the first bid plus the minimum increment or proxy bid meets this limitation because it "does not exceed" the first bid by said minimum increment or proxy bid.

Referring to claims 2, 6, 8, 10, and 14-16, these claims recite comparing a proposed bid to a proxy bid wherein the proposed bid is equal to a minimum increment plus a current high bid. These claims go on to recite that if proposed bid exceeds the proxy bid then awarding an item to a second bidder for the proxy bid, and if the proposed bid does not exceed the proxy bid then awarding the item to the second bidder for the proposed bid. However, these limitations are inherent in Fisher. Fisher teaches a system and method for conducting proxy bidding for a plurality of bidders. Proxy bidding is inherently designed to allow a bidder to obtain an item for the best possible price up to the proxy bid limit. Therefore, if an auction bid reaches a proxy limit and that bidder has the highest bid then the bidder wins the auction for the proxy bid. However, if the bidder's bid is below the proxy bid and that bidder has the highest bid then the bidder wins the auction for the proposed bid.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 2, 5, 6, 8-10, and 13-16 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
